Anu Malik is flying high these days. We mean - literally! If the plan sticks, he should be flying into Istanbul next month for a new project to score a Turkish-Hindi fusion song. The Turkish rock singer Petek Dincoz has invited Anu Malik to record a fusion track in Hindi and Turkish. Petek is known as Britney Spears of Turkey and is a quite a sensation with few chart busting numbers to her credit.

Well, all the best to Anu. We hope and pray that he doesn't sing in the score! J

Anu ji, since it's your first break with an overseas artist, we hope and pray that you bring originality to the table. Please! Pretty please!
